

Violent riots in Asina

On the night of the anniversary of the Ark landing, violent riots broke out in the southern palace district of Asina. Led by the Toria Arora Kirati, parts of the Toria Edalphi living in the Toria refuge violently overpowered members of the city guard, forcibly seized their weapons and called for a revolt.

Thanks to the intervention of individual Toria who did not take part in the traitorous uprisings, the remaining forces of the city guard could be alerted early.

Several units, including the newly formed and sworn in Toria units, managed to prevent the traitorous forces from advancing and to put down the uprisings at a late hour.

The ringleader Arora Kirati is still at large, but the City Guard and the State Chancellery assure that there is no further threat to the inhabitants and citizens of Ad Astra.
